THAT MAN WILSON. HELP ON THE FUND.

He persists in leading "The Evening World's" National Guard election.

Major Kipp less than three hundred votes behind him.

Little or no change in the positions of other contestants.

Once more Capt. Wilson, the irrepressible commander of the Second Battery, comes into the lead in THE EVENING WORLD'S National Guard election. He has 41,672 votes, but Major Kipp, of the Seventh regiment, is close on his heels with 41,113 ballots.

Col. Ruppert is still third, with 32,581, and Lieut.-Col. Moran fourth, with 30,440.

The sword which the successful candidate will receive is of fine, unique design, and is to be made of open wire, of special design, richly ornamented, and of the best material to be obtained.

The blade will be of the pure Damascus steel, mounted and hand-bladed, as well as the mountings upon the scabbard, which will be of steel and nickel-plated. The grip will be of silver and gold, and the hilt will be plated and engraved, the design depending upon the taste of the officer receiving it.

The shape of the blade will depend upon the taste of the officer, and will be either straight, and straight, or will be a Sabre and curved in rows.

A sword mounting, mounted and handle engraved, is the proper part of the sword, and will be engraved with the name of the winner, with his rank and regiment.

The sword will be manufactured by P. M. Wright & Son, Fife, Scotland, who have made many of military equipments, and this announcement of itself guarantees the best of material and workmanship.

If you have not already done so, cut out and send the following card, properly filled in, to THE EVENING WORLD.

WARM TO IT.

Interest in THE EVENING WORLD Christmas Trees is very great, and contributions are coming in plenteously. But this should only be another stimulant for all who have as yet done nothing. Non-contributors will please bear in mind that there is no more reason why the hearty patrons of the tree should exert themselves for the poor children than there exists for their doing the same. Don't let the self-sacrificing, open-handed people do all the work. Six halls, with their Christmas Trees, will stand a large amount of damage. The time is getting shorter, too. So, if you please, good folk, hurry up and send your contributions.

AH!

A certain novelist, who was thought to have reached the limit in the matter of erotic literary license, is now under charges which would seem to show that an autobiography would differ but little from his imaginative works save in point of excess.

Probably a large majority of those who have devoured the grossness of action and motive which this brilliant young man has garnished for them with a style as rare and dainty as a peridot will shrink from the author as an actor of deeds which they placidly ruminate on as creations. This is the consistent inconsistency of human nature.

THESE DOCK PEOPLE, MAYOR?

The community over which Mayor Grant presides has its ear cocked, waiting for his judgment on the Dock rotteness. That there was rotteness, loud, feid, offensive rotteness, was shown on the investigation. All the Mayor has to do is to detect the sources of the stench and blot them out.

It is a very simple problem theoretically. There is corruption in the Dock Department. Who was responsible for it should do. The only difficulty is in tracking it home. What are elusive vermin, and can hide well. Root them out, Mr. Grant.

Spring water is being let into the White House. With such a drowsy Administration isn't this a needless expense?

SPOTLIGHTS.

Dr. Bainbridge didn't shoot the quail he was charged with shooting, but paid the fine for another which had shot for him. He was charged with fine shooting, doctor.

Lord Somebody or other wants to be divorced from his wife because of her naughty ways with an infantry lieutenant. She has instituted a counter charge. Counter charge to infantry lieutenant? Oh, yes! yes! yes!

Patti was poorly supported at the Auditorium. Should think Patti could support herself on $5,000 a night.

ARTISTS OF LIFE WITH INDIGNANT NARRATIVE.

Am I not a bold and arrow? When it would be a great deal easier To load him with a seven-shooter. —Puck.

A "dead" wire is worse to have around than a corpse a month old.

John H. Macy is a very husky fellow. An ear of corn a second is John's record as a husker.

A man called "Old Tom," and living on snake Hill, is a confirmed drunkard. His favorite pastime must be gin.

Some people think the good Bostonians want more heart. That may account for the turn in the late elections when they put Hart in.

Fugitives were arrested yesterday as vagrants. This is where a cow-catcher has the advantage.

The enterprising young man who easily sauntered into a seat in the Morris' box at the Auditorium had a peculiar bouquet about him. It was Mrs. Morton's.

A sailor made a faint of jumping of the Brooklyn Bridge. Several adjacent men made a faint of the fainted jump he fainted would have made.

ATHLETES IN REPOSE.

C. J. Harvey is a man well posted on athletic matters. He possesses good executive ability, and is President of the thriving Star Athlete Club. He is something of an athlete himself.

Oscar Meinken, a man of small stature, is the most weightless exponent in amateur athletic circles, owing to the fact that he is fatless personified; in fact, he is satisfied taking the worst of any question that might arise in the course of a match.

F. W. Meinken, of the Manhattan Athletic Club, is an unassuming athlete, but he "nets" there. A number of prizes have been added to his collection this fall.

William B. Curtis is an enthusiast regarding skating, and before his time was to be fully occupied with the management of the business affairs of the National Skating Association used to be a familiar figure on the skating grounds.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

is a complaint which affects nearly everybody, more or less. It originates in a cold, or successive colds, combined with impure blood. Discharges flow from his nose, tickling in the throat, often give breath, pain over and between the eyes, ringing and bursting noises in the ears, etc. the more common symptoms.

Catarrh

being a constitutional disease cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strikes directly at the cause by removing all impurities from the blood, banding up the diseased tissue and giving healthy tone to the whole system.

Catarrh

"For several years I have been troubled with that terrible disagreeable disease, catarrh. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla with the very best results. It cured me of that continual dropping in my throat, and started up feeling." Mrs. S. D. Heath, Putnam, Conn. "N. H. If you have decided to try Hood's sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1.00 per lb. Prepared by G. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.
